DEDICATION

To our parents . . .
Whose hands and whose hearts
With wisdom and love,
Have fixed our eyes
Upon things from above;
With patience and kindness
And help ever near,
They guide our footsteps —
Those hands are so dear.

Gene Estes, on the receiving end of a saw, appears deep in thought about . . . logs? He must be wondering how beautiful articles of furniture can evolve from such square-looking logs!

He should ask Joe Huang, who pauses for a moment to display some of his handiwork.

Checking over some orders, are Mr. Bill Day, Assistant Finishing Room Foreman, and Mr. Richard Jarret, Assembly Room Foreman.

KITCHEN

Judy Williams places a mouth-watering dish in the steam oven.

MAINTENANCE

In the process of installing screens for the new auditorium, is Mr. Karol Forbes, and several of the maintenance crew.

DAIRY

Dick Coleman checks the brains of the pasteurizer. This vital gauge records all pasteurizing operations for future reference.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

With a smile, Bonnie Keeton answers Walt Olsen's question as Sue Roesler performs her duties at the dictaphone.

MAILMAN

Who said Santa has whiskers? This everyday St. Nick brings our cheer in 3x5 missives.

"May I help you? Cookies, pencils, slide rule, soap, books?" asks Jeanette Hoel of a regular customer.

LAUNDRY

They keep us in clean clothes. Erdith Simmons puts away freshly laundered articles for the afternoon pickup.

JANITORS

They keep us in clean halls. Lee Wolverton, Ron Reed and Larry Stuvenga are never surprised at what turns up in a wastebasket.

MONITORS

They keep us in! Step lightly, Carolyn. Myrtle might wake up!

MUSIC MONITOR

These monitors have the happy task of incorporating music into their work. Nona Lyman notes absences.

SENIOR BAND

MR. PAUL COLEMAN
Conductor

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

MR. MARVIN ROBERTSON
Director

The Men's Quartet, consisting of Harley Bagley, David Claridge, Loren Frost, and Norman Schwisow; and the Flute Trio, Rosi Hawthorn, Davaleen DuBose, and Mardi Neufeld, are good representatives of the many fine groups which have performed this year.

SYLVAN CHORUS

Presenting songs that stir the soul, this elite group of twenty-eight students, with their conductor, Mr. Marvin Robertson, has thrilled audiences both on and off the campus.

Judy Dietrich has given us many pleasant hours of music at both the organ and piano. Here she is shown preparing for her Spring recital.

Dick Coleman, first chair clarinetist, has brought beautiful music to our religious and secular meetings with both his bass and B flat clarinets.

In Memory
of our friend and classmate,
ALLAN LITTMAN

RELIGIOUS

SUNSHINE BANDS

Each Sabbath afternoon a group of young people visits invalids and other shut-ins. It is always rewarding to see a smile of gratitude as a bit of cheerful variety is brought into their long days. Pictured here are Terressa Cline, Charles Davis, John Thompson, Judy Young, Loren Luce, Judy Prong, Yvonne Gibbons, Kirk Holcomb, Jim Pfost, Steve Bergstrom, and Bobbie Wilson, with two of their friends.

SEMINAR

Seminar, held every Friday evening before vespers, gives students an opportunity to practice speaking before church groups.

BIBLE QUIZ TEAMS

How well do you know your Bible? This question was partially answered by the teams which competed in the "Know Your Bible Contest" which was sponsored by the National Society of Missionary Volunteers. Shown here are the Academy students who competed in the preliminaries held in the Washington Conference of SDA. From the local contest the delegates were chosen to compete in the National finals. The Auburn Academy contestants were Wayne Young and Donna Phillips, Dick Andrus and Bruce Merizan, Ila Russell and David Claridge (not pictured), Allen Braman and Ron Case.

Elder Ramsey was the quiz master.

MISSIONARY VOLUNTEERS OFFICERS

SABBATH SCHOOL OFFICERS

Ila Russell, Joyce Thomsen, Walt Olsen, Harley Bagley, Shirley Jordan, Chris Powell, George Nordby, Bob Niles, Ron Case, Barbara Grubb, Davaleen DuBose, Ken Veal, Clay Bliss and Donna Monks.

Usher's Club members help maintain order and keep confusion to a minimum in religious and other meetings.

OFFICERS

Karen Richards, Diane Hilde, Davaleen DuBose and Harley Bagley.

STUDENT WEEK OF DEVOTION

Besides the fact that the entire student body gained a great blessing from this Week of Devotion, the student speakers found that preparing and giving these talks was an invaluable experience. Ila Russell, Barb Thomsen, Dick Dower, Clay Bliss, Ed Crookes, Margrete Froom, Jeannette Hoel, George Nordby, J. B. Rupert, Bob Niles, Joyce Thomsen, Douglas Cooper, Dale Davies, Kate Crookes, and Elder R. W. Wentland, advisor, listen intently as Danny DuBose practices.

"Only believe, only believe. All things are possible, only believe," was the theme of our Fall Week of Prayer. Elder Fenton Froom's messages rekindled in each of us the spark of faith.

March came, and with it the Spring Week of Prayer. Elder Duane Anderson brought us talks on the theme, "Driving Today Along Life's Highway," as compared to modern highway travel.

BAPTISMAL CLASS

This class is a preparation for one of the most important steps in the Christian's experience. Students learn the fundamentals of the gospel, and the foundation upon which the Seventh-day Adventist church is built. Pictured with Elder R. W. Wentland, church pastor, are some of the candidates who were baptized at Christmas time of this year.

PRAYER BAND

Four boys share a peaceful moment with God after a day of physical and mental labor. These moments make the trials of school life seem smaller.

Prayer and meditation bring us closer to each other. Nancy Ruuska, Yvonne Gibbons, Phoebe Newby, and Pat Christensen find companionship in study and prayer.

FALL FESTIVAL

Halloween night . . . Orange and black streamers . . . Pumpkins and witches . . . Cats and clowns . . . All this could mean only one thing, the ASB annual Fall Festival.

"Step right up folks. Join this young lady in the dart game! Break the balloon and win a prize! Throw it, Xenia. Show Danny Chang and Lee Wolverton that first hit wasn't just luck!"

The stage was highlighted by a giant Casa Loma pin, flanked by two murals of King Arthur's Knights. This pin, which revolved to introduce each new contestant, is pictured with the club officers.

OUR AMATEUR HOUR

Barb Thomsen received grand prize for her pantomime of the recording, "It's in the Book." Another outstanding part of the program was "The Battle of Siam," re-enacted by the Siamese boys. Recognize anyone?

MCC

Valuable to the young man taking this course is the class in First Aid. Bruce Merizan, Wayne Young, Ken Veal and Ray Helberg learn the correct way to assist a wounded comrade.

NURSES CLUB

Mrs. Wentland experiences the care of her nurses-to-be. Ila Russell supervises the operation while Myrt Smith takes the patient's pulse, Diane Hilde manages the thermometer and Linnea Wicklund stands ready to assist if force is needed. Paper's out! Reporters Paulette Dressel, Jeanne Ogden, Derrill Spears, Dick Colman, George Nordby and Jeannette Hoel find this column highly amusing. Ila Russell, associate editor, can only sigh and relax a bit until the next deadline.

RAINIER VISTA

RAINIER VISTA

Choosing a year book cover is no small problem, as Sandie White, copy editor; Heather Hamren, editor-in-chief; and Donna Phillips, assistant editor; fully realize. Here they faced the task with some sample covers to give them an idea for this the '60 annual. Of course, these three Washingtonians settled for nothing less than their own mountain, Rainier.

MR. PAUL COLEMAN

MR. MARVIN L. ROBERTSON

Sponsors

Judi Williams and Nona Lyman, typists, sometimes wonder at the tricks their machines play.

Snap editor, Mardi Neufeld, with artist, Joe Huang, reap a harvest of laughs from pictures turned in for the snap campaign.

Checking over accounts we find Allan Braman, advertising manager; Ken Veal, assistant advertising manager; and Ron Case, business manager.

I wish to thank the members of my staff for the fine assistance and cooperation they have given this year. Mr. Paul Coleman and Mr. Marvin Robertson, sponsors, have burned more than their share of midnight oil. Without each one of them the 1960 RAINIER VISTA would have been an impossibility.

Mr. Jan S. Doward, photographer and writer, also deserves recognition here. He provided the beautiful color picture which you see on the cover.

Thanks again, all of you.

Sincerely,

Heather Hamren
